

2017 SUBSCRIPTIONS SURVEY RESULTS

Page One: Please check the grade level range(s) that apply to your children:

Did you utilize any of the online subscriptions over the 2016-17 school year?

"No" responses below:

- Lazy
- Perhaps our aide used them.
- special needs boy
- We have so many resources at home (we are now on our "last" student. We also use the HCOS online courses which provide a lot of digital content. We are wanting to make greater use of Gizmos and RightNow media.
- I am just learning what is available.
- I am just learning what is available.
- Didn't know about the Online Subscriptions
- Library. Typing
- We have limited internet data usage and, though the subscriptions definitely interested us, we didn't find them to be integral to our children's learning this year.

affirmed and supported

Always felt extremely well supported and resourced.

No

I knew I could ask for help and get an answer right away.

Very helpful staff

I often feel like I am not sure who is the correct person to approach and usually send questions via the link on the library.

Page Eight: Have you any suggestions about how you feel we could help you with your student's education?

Good quality online math subscription would be helpful.

I don't. There seems to be something for everything to a degree or some kind of solutions we wish HCOS had Dreambox Math- We love it so much I pay for it anyway.

No

Let them keep their learning environment. Don't fix what isn't broken

We are very impressed with all the options available in the learning commons and how the staff work so hard to help patrons access resources/answer questions.

There are certain subjects I struggle with teaching at home, like writing, and I'm wondering if there could be writing classes or resources available for the primary grades, or just a parent workshop on teaching writing! I attended the online session for older students a month ago which was fantastic, so would love to see more of that.

Some of us parents depended on the kits you had to make sure the student learned what was expected. When the kits were no longer available it made it harder to deal with. Hopefully for next school year someone would be available

I LOVE the unit studies! Thank you, thank you, thank you!

Any other comments or suggestions?

Bring back raz kids (reading A-Z)

I use the ones I am familiar with. There may be others that would be great but I am just not aware. Sometimes a recommendation from a friend is what does it. Maybe you could share the ones people love so that we are motivated to try them out.

---

I have none you guys are doing great!

---

I feel there's a whole with beginning readers -I really miss A-Z kids (raz kids). Reading eggs doesn't fill the gap.

Impressive variety. If we were at the beginning of our homeschool journey, we would probably make more use of them.

I have been so impressed with the resources available through HCOS. We have been blessed by the wide variety of subscriptions you make available to us! Thanks for curating.

We enjoyed adaptive curriculum but had a few glitches. We tried tynker but didn't like it.

I am so thankful for all of the great resources that are provided! Thank you! One comment/frustration we have had is with Tynker over the last couple of months. It seems that not just the dashboard, but also the access has changed. My daughters were really thriving and progressing through different learning modules, but then it was hard to access them. I did get help from Beth, but since then we have been having messages that we have used up the amount of free sessions available or something like that. So I need to follow up on that again. If something has changed though, it would be great to hear about it in advance as a heads up because it takes time to track people down and figure out what the problem is. I wonder if the issue is around how much of a subscription HCOS has paid for with Tynker. It is a really great program so I hope that the school can have more access with it if possible.
